

Cassandra Heng Simin

about the artist

Age 21, presently pursuing my art studies in LaSalle College Of The Arts.

While I am in Fine Arts, painting is seldom a medium I use or indulge in. My usual medium is drawing, using pencils, Copic pens-an absolute favorite- and most recently Chinese ink. Collage is another medium I've recently started working with, ever since I read about Joseph Cornell. My style of drawing is heavily influenced by the Gothic style and Japanese manga /anime, though now and then, I attempt-emphasis on attempt-realistic-style. When I DO paint, what comes forth on the canvas is surreal and abstract. Yours truly confesses that while she is a fan of the Baroque and Renaissance Masters, it would appear her paintings currently lean towards the abstract...for now.

Singapore
ArtsStreet™

Arts in the Street for the Man in the Street