about the artist

After graduating from NAFA, Fern continued to study Chinese painting in traditional gongbi (also known as meticulous style) in Shanghai under masters such as Mao Guolun and Shi Dawei. She returned to Singapore to teach part-time at NAFA and art in primary and secondary schools. Over the past two decades she had exhibited in numerous group exhibitions in Singapore as well as Thailand, Taiwan and Hong Kong, and won prizes in the National Defence Competition (1991) and UOB Painting of the Year Competition (1991-1992).
