

Vivian Ang

about the artist

Vivian Ang is currently a practicing artist in Nayang Academy of Fine Arts, undergoing her Diploma majoring in Printmaking. She works mainly with prints, photography, graphic design and watercolor painting. In 2005, ITE College started to collect her watercolor paintings and displaying them in different campuses around Singapore. Simultaneously, ITE also collected her Prints, Illustrations and paintings after her graduation. Vivian has also started conducting classes in ITE and will be progressing with more in the near future.