

Low Tho Seng

about the artist

A self-taught artist since the age of 13 and was fascinated in water colour painting in that early age. Learned by observing those pioneer artists painted Singapore River and Chinatown. Did extensive research on painting in library, attended various art exhibitions and demonstrations. Took about 20 years to master the technique of fine water colour painting. The works are now widely collected both local and in overseas. Besides water colour, the artist also paint oil, acrylic, pastel and other medium.
