

GRAFFITIXPRESSIONARTIST

Muhd Khairul B. Ahmad

Born in 1986, Singapore.

A self-taught artist, has been learning graffiti art for several years. He is known as Klaxon99 among his friends that has the same interest as him. He is a member of Arrowsoul warriorz crew, A group of graffiti writers that share the same interest & passion. Influence by the sub-culture, he wants to show to the public that graffiti is an art form not to be dismissed as filth. His art works base on what he express & the art of writing names. Besides doing graffiti he also interest in different types of art form. Khairul has also actively participated in several workshops, competitions & events in Singapore such as Singapore Street Festival. He hopes that in future Singapore will have more space for the graffiti writers & won't label this art movement as a transgress art.
