

Soh Chiang

about the artist

Mr Soh has been trained in art for 4 years. He is very experimental and abstract in his usage of materials when it comes to painting. He would paint from the back tip of the brush, to squeezing the paint from the tubes. His theme varies from flower, trees, and Buddha. He claimed he finds painting allows him to ease his mind and earn self respect for being good at something, to be useful and happy at work.